

I'm nothing without my fans ~ Michael Jackson (repeat 3x)

Daddy

I balanced on toes for you became platinum before puberty polished patent leather shoes, while other kids wore dusty sneakers with style

Daddy...

I don't want to dance anymore
I don't care what you thought or what you taught me I just want to.... Imagine something you thought I would forget to be instead I made you millions! before I learned my

Two
Tito, the music you made beneath bedsheets

Traumatize
Toddler in a lost world, terrified in a Land Before Time...

Three...
I think I'm embarrassed about who I am I hide behind shadows that drape insecurities I shiver when the sun sees hour hand reach high noon

I'm off tune MICHAEL!
I'm off tune

AGAIN MICHAEL,

I'm, NEVER off tune!!!
The seed of perfection is planted
I am dance
dancing to choreography, of leather slashing against skin bite by buckles, I am bruised beneath records of hits you wouldn't allow me to call you...daddy Joseph you were Disney to me trying to find the right track for father

I am dance
moon-walking to the outer parts of me, searching for stardom perfection is forever you wanted nothing but sharp edges I tried to loosen up sometimes so I danced
