

Relay For Life

EVERY since I was a small specimen, I KNEW I'd be born to swim...
Impatiently waiting on my block I knew I was up against some of the greatest men so competition, is gonna be thrilling
I'm getting nervous
I start shaking, it felt like I was a torpedo on the verge of self-implosion
my goal is to breach the walls that have never been broken
my
goal is to reach the end
my, mind is determined my, tail starts waggin and I can't WAIT to begin Then, at a sudden burst of about...15 inches per second I, SHOT off that starters block as I wished myself good luck Firing like a hot bullet that won't stop until I knock-you-up

That's IT
I'M IN, I'm in and I'm swimming swimming like a school of fish, that is fighting the waves of the deep blue ocean amongst the millions who make this swim I knew I was just one person a person who knew that this is the swim for life a person who knew that this is the swim for MY life so I swim and I swim lapping people by the second passing up swimmers who fail to realize that, loosing this race, YOU might as well wither n DIE
so, I keep kicking and by, THIS POINT I'm back peddling
back stroking
and very much so hoping I win
my tail
flipping faster then Nemo's left fin

Floating UP
the fallopian tubes which had and upward slop of 42
I thought I through it was then
I met the obstacle of exhaustion
So I begin to sing songs like:

“Just keep swimming”
“Just keep swimming”
“Just keep swimming”
“swimming, swimming”
what do we do?

JUST...KEEP...

SWIMMING!!!

Still, nowhere near the end I begin to overcome hurdles where, most swimmers give in I may be, ONE out of a MILLION but I will be the ONLY one to get in There will NOT be two specimens that fertilize this egg
NO TIES
NO TWINS

I'M TAKING IT!

I'm gonna be that seed that prevents your next period
I'm gonna be that nut that makes you go nuts, because I entered life...on accident
I'm gonna be specimen that makes you say

“ALLLLLLL... SHIT, I'M PREGNAN”

So what do I do?

I...KEEP...SWIMMING!!!

Swimming for life is what I'm doing because I know when I reach the end, there will be nothing in life that will keep me complaining hell one out of a million
I gotta be here for reason
I gotta survive
swim past this spermicide CRACK this egg
and fertilize

I will evolve into a fetus
I will evolve into a 12lb/9oz baby so EVERYONE can see us and when its 4 am you're gonna run to the store that is most convenient spend...
$23.79 on a test...

YOU DIDN'T STUDY FOR!

Remember
I'm that nut, that makes you go nuts because I'm simply the best better than all the rest and GOD DAMN...I feel blessed because there is no greater gift than life
it true

There are a million other swimmers that would love to be you
and you
and you...
be grateful for life ya'll
